	Department	Research project title	Review results	Summary
1	Epidemiology	Revision of RP1-06 “Study on cancer of the uterus among A-bomb survivors in the Life Span Study cohort, 1950-2003 (Addendum to RP 8-85) ” (Sadakane et al.)	Approved	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>◆ This study will give priority to uterine corpus cancer rather than cervical cancer: “give priority to” should be replaced with “the scope of this study is limited to.”</li> <li>◆ RERF and the collaborating hospitals will provide study subjects and society with necessary information by using a notice or the website. In this regard, IRB plans to post a list of ongoing RPs, outlines thereof, and other information including opt-out issues on the external website, so it is encouraged to utilize the website.</li> </ul>

*With regard to the aforementioned items, IRB approved by confirming revisions made properly.
