

The 205th joint meeting of Human Investigation Committee and Ethics Committee for Genome Research

Date: January 21, 2015 (Wednesday), 9:05 - 11:25

Place: Auditorium (Hiroshima), 3rd fl. meeting room (Nagasaki) (teleconference)

<Ethical review of genetic and epidemiological research>

	Department	Research project title	Review results	Summary
1	RERF	"Epidemiological Study of Health Effects in Fukushima Emergency Workers " (This review concerns a preliminary study.)	Approved	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ To conduct this study (including the preliminary study) in accordance with the Ethical Guidelines for Medical Research Involving Human Subjects in place of the Ethical Guidelines for Epidemiological Research. ◆ To revise the contents of "the letter of request for participation in the health effects study" and "the consent for participation in preliminary study." ◆ To refer to the conflict of interests in the RP and the informed consent in response to the review results of the Conflict of Interest Prevention Committee.

*The above Research Protocol was approved after confirmation that the relevant modifications were made properly.